SAFER USA GENERAL INTEREST COURSES

BASIC PRACTICAL BALLISTICS (4 hours)

2011: & On Demand

Prerequisites: None

Equipment required: None

Course Description: This is a SAFER USA course designed to give the student practical working knowledge of fundamental ballistic issues that impact the accuracy of bullet placement on the target. Few shooters understand the thousands of complex chemical and physical actions that occur in the small fraction of a second between the firing pin striking the primer and the projectile's impact. While it seems instantaneous it isn't. This course explains what influences shot placement and what you can do to control, or compensate for, those influences. What effect does shooting uphill or downhill have on shot placement? What about bullet shape, wind velocity, rain, and other variables? This is a must-take course for handgun and rifle hunters and competitive shooters as well as metallic cartridge reloaders,
